Chapter Chairperson Message

PAST CHAIR NIGHT

There was a great turnout for the February meeting to show appreciation to our Past Chairs. It was my pleasure to present the Ira Somerson, CPP Excellence in Leadership Award to last year's Chapter Chairperson, William E. Lutz Jr.

It was also great to see so many Past Chairs in attendance. There was a representation of leaders from the past 30 years.

I would also like to thank Eric Pritchard for leading a great presentation and discussion on video liability and general legal considerations with audio and video surveillance.

NEXT MONTH

The Chapter will be hosting the 15th annual Law Enforcement Appreciation Night. As the chapter has done in past years, we are seeking sponsors to assist with making a special night for this year's awardees. If you wish to participate and help us recognize and honor the dedicated men and women who serve and protect our communities, please contact, Chapter Treasurer, Gene Cummings at treasurer@phillyasis.com. We ask that you contact Gene before Tuesday, March 11th, to make sponsorship arrangements.

RECOGNITIONS

Congratulations to the members that have passed their board certifications in September and October:

- William D. Chubb - CPP
- James J. Kerrigan - CPP

The Chapter is considering hosting a CPP and PSP study group this year. Please contact me if you are interested in joining either group.

Calling For Volunteers

Getting involved in the chapter will help to add value to your membership. It increases your network, improves leadership skills, and so much more. We are currently looking to fulfill some key positions for our Chapter; the Foundation & Scholarship Chair and the Communication & Newsletter Editor Chair. There are other opportunities as well, so please contact me if you are interested .

President's Perspective

ASIS President Rich Widup, Jr., CPP

This past month, I was pleased to attend my local chapter meeting (The Southern Connecticut Chapter) to help swear in the 2014 officers. It was deeply rewarding to witness these next generation ASIS volunteers take the reins and prepare to meet the challenges ahead.

Our 234 chapters are instrumental to our success. It's at the local level, at the Chapter meetings taking place across the globe, where much of the hands-on work gets done. The chapter level is where many now-established ASIS leaders and initiatives got their start. For example, the Young Professionals and Women in Security groups took hold at the Chapter level and it's where the ASIS mentorship program is being...Read More.

Johnson

CONSHOHOCKEN, PA, Nov. 15, 2013 -- AlliedBarton Security Services, www.alliedbarton.com, the industry's premier provider of highly trained security personnel, announces the promotion of Carol Johnson to President and COO. In her new role, Johnson will continue to report to Bill Whitmore, AlliedBarton's Chairman and CEO.

"This additional executive role within our organization will allow for an even greater focus on the implementation of strategic plans and initiatives that support our clients' evolving needs and the continued development of comprehensive security solutions," explained Whitmore.

Johnson will oversee operations and business development, create and execute on strategies that deliver an exceptional client experience, and help guide the organization's growth. Johnson joined AlliedBarton in 2010 as Senior Vice President, Client Experience, following a successful career in the staffing industry.

"The ability to work alongside Bill in the further development of security solutions and our leadership culture is an incredible opportunity," said Johnson. "The leadership skills of security officers across the country are essential to creating and maintaining safe and secure environments."

"Carol's immersion in the security services industry has been instrumental in moving our organization forward," Whitmore added. "Her acute understanding of our client's needs for contracted personnel, and the impact we can make on their operations, well positions her to help lead our teams to deliver the highest quality standards of service every day, at every location."

Johnson earned her MBA from Loyola University of Chicago and her bachelor's degree from Northern Illinois University. Prior to joining AlliedBarton, Johnson held several successive roles at Kelly Services including Senior Vice President, Global Sales.

Women in Security

We are looking for “Seasoned” local professional women, in the ASIS Great Philadelphia family, to help with mentoring younger women in our workforce. (You can also reach out to Kelly Argoe who is our Young Professionals Liaison).

We need you to share your stories where you helped make a difference in what used to be called a “man’s world” in our professional community. No disrespect guys, but our strong women leaders, no doubt, have stories to share.

Gals, your participation in our local chapter will assist younger women professionals realize how you helped pave their ways. Professionally speaking, there are more opportunities available now versus “back in the day”. You made this happen—tell them how!

Send stories to Lil at Women_in_Security@phillyasis.com so I can share your thoughts on the newly re-created newsletter.

Lastly, we need your help to get more participation back to our local chapter meetings. We need your ideas, exciting guest speakers willing to come out and most importantly - YOU!
